FORMER EXPERIAN EMPLOYEE SENTENCED

(Sherman, Texas) States Attorney Matthew D. Orwig announced today that a 30-year-old Dallas man has been sentenced to 27 months in federal prison, a $5,000 fine and three years of supervised release. JAMEEL CASEY was sentenced today by United States District Judge Richard A. Schell for his role in a conspiracy to commit computer fraud in the Eastern District of Texas.

Casey was a former Experian Information Systems, Inc. employee, who conspired with other individuals to alter consumer credit report information in exchange for payment. Casey admitted that he made these alterations in order to assist consumers in obtaining credit. Casey pled guilty to this offense on March 13, 2006.

This case was investigated by special agents from the United States Secret Service and prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Shamoil Shipchandler.
